

Prairie Skies - Dog Training for Open Spaces

Summer School, 2009

Summer training opportunities for dogs (and owners) starting in
May, 2009

Surviving Your Dog's Adolescence

A training class especially for puppies 7-18 months old.
(Four weeks)

Koehler Method of Dog Training (KMODT)

Specialized basic obedience for dogs age 8 mos and up. Off-leash control in ten weeks.
No dogs the first night of class.

MetroDog

For owners who want a dog they can take anywhere, with special emphasis on well-behaved dogs in urban and institutional environments. Completing two sessions of MetroDog will prepare you and your dog to test for the AKC Canine Good Citizen certificate. If you've ever thought about doing therapy work with your dog in hospitals, schools or senior centers, this class is for you. (Four weeks)

Tracking (six weeks)

Teach your dog to follow human scent, and prepare for tracking tests or titles.
Tracking regulations and info available from the AKC at www.akc.org

Puppy Kindergarten

For puppies age 10 weeks to 7 months old. Introduce your puppy to basic obedience, promote good behavior, and eliminate jumping up, biting and chewing, barking, digging...
On-going classes at three different Lincoln locations. (Four weeks)

- All classes run consecutive weeks, and then repeat. KMODT is ten weeks.
- NO CLASSES the week of the Fourth of July.
- Each class has a specialized emphasis (see above) and includes practice with obedience foundations (sit, down, come, heel, stay); how dogs learn (and how they don't), training with distractions, setting goals, proofing, and problem-solving.

Dates/sites TBA. Class sizes are limited.
